SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

The term of supervised release will commence with 90 days of inpatient treatment at Daytop Rhinback or another facility approved by the Probation Department for substance abuse, which program may include testing to determine whether the offender has reverted to the use of drugs or alcohol. At the end of 75 days at the inpatient treatment, the Probation Department shall submit a report to the Court to with respect to the defendants progress and to determine whether 90 days of treatment is sufficient. Once the inpatient treatment is deemed complete, the defendant shall participate in outpatient substance abuse treatment, mental health treatment and vocational training and counseling, under the supervision of Probation. The Probation Department is to report to the Court and the parties on the defendant's progress every 90 days during the defendant's supervised release. The defendant will be required to contribute to the costs of services rendered (co-payment), in an amount determined by the probation officer, based on ability to pay or availability of the third-party payment.

The defendant shall submit his person, residence, place of business, vehicle, or any other premises under his control to a search on the basis that the probation officer has reasonable belief that contraband or evidence of a violation of the conditions of the release may be found. The search must be conducted at a reasonable time and in reasonable manner. Failure to submit to a search may be grounds for revocation. The defendant shall inform any other residents that the premises may be subject to search pursuant to this condition.

The defendant shall participate in educational and vocational training programs as directed by the Probation Department.

The defendant is to report to the nearest Probation Office within 72 hours of release from custody

The defendant shall be supervised by the district of his residence.
